Baltimore and Ohio, Common, Lower. An Entire Absence of Aggressive Leadership-American Shares Sag n Foreign Dealings-The Chinese Situation Affects the Securities.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The Stock Market this morning opened dull, generally steady, and without significance. Trading was confine? to professionals and for the most part prices were unchanged. Baltimore and Ohio, common, was lower on sales of long stock. There was an entire absence of aggressive leadership.

Abroad, American stocks were lower, but the maintenance of the Bank of England rate of discount at 4 per cent, last work's figure, favorably affected the price

Abroad, American stocks were lower, but the maintenance of the Bank of England rate of discount at 4 per cent, last week's figure, favorably affected the price of consols which fractionally advanced. The securities markets were all inclined to say owing to the perplaying Chinese to sag, owing to the perplexing Chinese situation and the prospects of higher money. Dealings in Americans were light, with an average decline of % per cent.
